

Alkira Secondary College is looking for

HOME STAY FAMILIES

to host INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

International students pay a homestay fee of $270 per week, providing them with three nutritious meals a day, a bedroom of their own and general support like you would your own child. This placement is long term, from at least six months to one year plus.

Homestay providers (and all those living in the residence over 18 years old) must either have or be prepared to apply for a Working with Children's Card (obtained for free via Department of Justice).
